

From the community Porter and Chester Institute – Stratford students and staff present donation to American Cancer Society

Porter and Chester Institute student ambassadors present a check for $560 to American Cancer Society - New England Division representative Erin Nielsen (center). (Posted by rtarkowski, Community Contributor)

By Community Contributor rtarkowski

NOVEMBER 16, 2015, 2:37 PM

In recognition of October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the students and staff at Porter and Chester Institute's Stratford campus held a bake sale to raise money for the American Cancer Society.

Pictured: Porter and Chester Institute student ambassadors present a check for $560 to American Cancer Society - New England Division representative Erin Nielsen (center).

This item was posted by a community contributor. To read more about community contributors, click here.

Copyright © 2016, Courant Community

This article is related to: National Breast Cancer Awareness Month