Porter and Chester Institute to Celebrate Brockton Campus Grand Opening

Brockton, MA— Porter and Chester Institute will be celebrating the Grand Opening of their newest campus at 609 Belmont Street in Brockton, Massachusetts on Wednesday, March 15th from 4:00pm – 6:00pm. Porter and Chester would like to invite anybody who would be interested in attending to pop on by for light refreshments, an Opening Ceremony and Campus Tour.

At 4:00pm the Opening Ceremony will begin and be presented by President and CEO of PCI, Jim Bologna, Henry Przybylowicz, Campus Director of Operations and Education, and The Honorable Robert. F. Sullivan, Mayor of Brockton. Following the Ribbon Cutting at this event, campus tours will be given throughout the remainder of the evening to display the industry-modeled labs for careers ranging from Automotive, Computer, Healthcare, and Skilled Trades.

If you or someone you know is interested in one of our career programs, come on by to our Grand Opening to learn more about what Porter and Chester has to offer.

About Porter and Chester Institute: Porter and Chester Institute (PCI), a private sector, post-secondary technical institution with eight campuses throughout Connecticut and Massachusetts, featuring twelve different career programs, supports committed students in achieving the technical and professional skills essential for their chosen career through industry- modeled, student-centered education and training.
